01 / TUNAL GROUP × ALEXANDRE BECOURT

A meeting in Philadelphia. A shared project.

The collaboration, through the fighter's eyes.

He met Florent Dervis and Thomas Guillemette in the United States and later signed with Tunal in front of his mother. He describes personalised nutritional, physical and technical support. Backing "The Fang" means supporting a journey from rural France towards the international stage, with a message of persistence for young people facing difficulties.

02 / THE STORY

A journey rooted in Deux-Sèvres.

Raised in Saint-Rémy near Niort with limited means, Alexandre paid for his first boxing licence at 21. Boxing gave him a structure to rebuild his confidence. His father's words remain his guide: "Anyone who refuses to improve has already stopped being good."

03 / THE JOURNEY

Building a career, one step at a time.

After the pandemic and shoulder surgery, he trained in Philadelphia from late 2024 to late 2025. An orthodox light heavyweight standing 1.83 m, he is preparing for his professional debut. His 30 August 2026 exhibition is excluded from his official 0–0–0 record.

> HIS AMBITION
>
> Become a unified world champion. Over the next three to five years, aim for a continental title and a place in the world top 50.
