A new chapter with Tunal Group.

The collaboration, through the fighter's eyes.

Bekzod joins the fighters represented by Tunal Group. He lists Naimov Siroj as his coach at Oxygen Fight Team. Brands interested in his career can contact Tunal to discuss a partnership project.

02 / THE STORY

His grandmother took him to the gym.

Bekzod grew up in Samarkand, a city he remembers for its hospitality. His grandmother, a sports enthusiast, took him to the gym at seven. Boxing was his choice. Early competitions and wins shaped his childhood, and from sixth grade he attended a sports school. He remembers his first national title, in 2018, as a turning point.

03 / THE JOURNEY

From youth selection to the pro ranks.

Bekzod recalls boxing for Uzbekistan's police team as a youth and junior. The Uzbek National Olympic Committee lists him in the youth squad at 63.5 kg for the 2021 Asian Championships in Dubai. On moving into the senior ranks, he chose to turn professional. He says he won his first pro fight in the second round. He also recalls a loss at an Asian championship in 2023 followed by three months away from training.
