01 / TUNAL GROUP × NAWEF CHAHLAL

Tunal Group, a team and a career plan

The collaboration, through the fighter's eyes.

In Nawef's account, Tunal Group turns an individual journey into a supported career project. Since 2024, he has valued the team's vision and the career plan developed with Barış. Preparation, scheduling, logistics, fight selection and visibility are among the changes he describes. He says this allows him to focus his efforts on boxing while knowing that a team is working alongside him. With Tunal, his ambition is to progress towards international opportunities and, ultimately, major titles.

02 / THE STORY

A father's support.

His father introduced him to combat sports and the fights of Naseem Hamed. For Nawef, boxing became a school of respect and discipline, as well as a way to hope for a better life for his parents.

He describes taking different jobs and making sacrifices to fund training and travel. Limited finances and the loss of someone close during a camp tested him. He took from those experiences a resolve to work with greater calm, method and precision.

03 / THE JOURNEY

Read. Adjust. Respond.

After competing across several amateur combat disciplines, Nawef reports turning professional on 13 July 2024 and a record of 6 wins with no losses or draws. He lists PAT and UBO Continental Asia belts among his achievements. Inspired by the Soviet school, he describes a style built on distance, precision and economical movement.
