BEHIND THE GLOVES

A STORY WORTH SHARING.

Kenan first stepped into a martial arts class at seven, through karate. Boxing came during high school. In his account, sport became a way to respond to a difficult environment and channel his determination.

He went on to graduate with honours in sports sciences, balancing his own athletic career with coaching. That double perspective—learning as a fighter and passing on knowledge as a coach—runs through his story.

After the pandemic, he moved to Thailand and met Barış. Their shared ambition opened a new professional chapter with Tunal. His goal is to represent Türkiye on the biggest stages. The verified results and footage below document the sporting steps of that journey.
